LMCC received a Bronze Telly Award for the informational online video, "Anytown, USA: Street Reconstruction Process". The program was produced in-partnership with the cities of Shorewood and Excelsior. Anytown, USA takes a humorous approach to educating viewers about the in's and out's of the street reconstruction process. "This recognition symbolizes LMCC's distinctive programming services for our member cities," said Chris Vogt, Productions Manager at LMCC. "We're helping to keep residents informed about what's going on in their city."

Established in 1979, the Telly is the premier award honoring video and television across all screens. The Telly Awards receives more than 12,000 entries each year. Entrants are judged by the Telly Awards Judging Council—an industry body of over 200 leading experts, including advertising agencies, production companies and major television networks.

LMCC's mission is to enrich the cultural fabric of the communities we serve by enhancing open government, producing high quality community programming, and welcoming and nurturing artistic talent.
